

MARTHUR GIVES ORDERS FOR WIDE SOCIAL AND POLITICAL REFORMS IN JAP HOMELAND

General Puts It Up To New Premier To Take Prompt And Vigorous Action To See That People Are Clothed, Fed and Housed This Winter

FOREIGN EXCHANGE ASSETS ORDERED REPORTED

Tokyo, Oct. 11.—(P)—General MacArthur met the new head of the Japanese government—Premier Baron Kijuro Shidehara—for the first time today and gave him instructions for wide social and political reforms which will require liberalization of the Japanese constitution. MacArthur likewise put it squarely up to Shidehara to take prompt and "vigorous" action to see that the Japanese people are clothed, fed and housed during the coming winter.

The meeting, at MacArthur's headquarters and initiated by Shidehara shortly after he had completed his cabinet and called on the emperor, came shortly after the Allied supreme commander had directed the Japanese government to report within 90 days all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign properties of the imperial household.

Allied headquarters also announced revocation of permission to the Japanese to operate an air courier and liaison transport service. The job will be taken over by American airmen.

Cost of the war to Japan from July, 1937, to its end was indicated by the commercial daily paper, Nippon Danga, which said the Japanese funded borrowings at the end of July, 1945, amounted to 114,289,000,000 yen ($6,619,265,666).

The reforms which MacArthur told Shidehara must be made in carrying out surrender terms included votes for women, labor unionization, liberalization of education, abolition of all secret governmental police and revision of industrial monopolies.

In order for the report on foreign exchange assets was the sixth step the Allied command has taken in bringing about tight control of Japanese finances.

Obviously Allied investigators are on the search for war loot and for the tips of Japan's big industrialists with the military and imperialism.

Today's announcement said the Japanese government has been ordered to report all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign holdings of the imperial household, within 90 days.

The announcement pointed out that many big families in Japan have extensive foreign holdings and "in several cases 55 per cent of their assets are located abroad."

The stated purpose of the financial directives is to assure that all Japanese owned foreign holdings (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Will Return 200,000 Month From Pacific

By JAMES LINDSLEY

Tokyo, Oct. 11.—(P)—American G. I.'s will be returned to the United States from the Pacific at the rate of more than 200,000 a month for the next six months, Allied headquarters announced today.

By the end of March a total of 1,250,000 men will have been returned to the States, leaving approximately 400,000 men in the occupation forces and units manning army installations in the Pacific theatre.

In Japan, four divisions (approximately 60,000 men) of combat troops, plus air service troops and special occupation units will remain. The Pacific forces will include 200,000 in Japan and Korea, seven thousand in the Philippines and 36,000 in Okinawa and the rest of the Ryukyu Islands. The rest of the 400,000 will be troops and service forces in Hawaii, the Marianas and other Pacific bases.

General MacArthur estimated previously that 200,000 men would be needed for the occupation of Japan six months after surrender. Today's announcement cuts that figure by the two divisions (approximately 30,000 men) which will be deployed to Korea from the total of 220,000 of the dual Korea-Japan occupation area.

The mass movement from the Pacific will be handled through eight big processing centers at Honolulu, Okinawa, Saipan, Tacloban, Jinsen and Manila. Before any divisions are sent home the low point men will be screened out to remain with the occupation forces replacing high point men from the units in the field, general headquarters said.

As of January 1, the divisions in the Pacific will be located as follows:

On Japan, 11 divisions—the 11th Airborne, First Cavalry, 77th, 81st, 25th, 97th, 32nd, 41st, 24th, 95th and 33rd.

Korea, 7th, 40th and 6th.

Philippines, 93rd, 96th, 86th.

Housewife Is Attacked With Own Hammer

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11.—(P)—Police, seeking a "thin woman in a long coat" in the hammer assault of a housewife, were stymied today when the victim lapsed into a coma which prevented further questioning.

Mrs. Martha Richey, 45, was found lying in the basement of her home on Bryn Mawr road on Tuesday night.

She had been beaten on the head with her own hammer which lay nearby.

Only clue to the assailant was a brief description given by Mrs. Richey, and a pair of horn-rimmed spectacles found beside the injured woman.

From Mrs. Richey's fragmentary statements, police gathered that a woman had come to her door to sell her soap and that they went to the basement for a demonstration. There, the salesman attacked her with a hammer.

Attendants at Mercy hospital said the injured woman made only a few statements, mostly incoherent, before she relapsed into unconsciousness.

Her husband, William H. Richey, an employee of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., and daughter, Mary Lou, 18, were reported en route to Pittsburgh.

Richey had been in Kansas City and the daughter at her classes in Allegheny College, Meadville.

Typhoon Damages Okinawa Island

New York, Oct. 11.—(P)—John Adams, CBS correspondent, said in a broadcast from Manila today that 90,000 soldiers had been left without quarters, five killed and a score wounded in the typhoon which struck Okinawa island Tuesday.

Several correspondents on the first plane to take off from Okinawa since the storm reported "damage so great that, had it come a month earlier, it could have changed the entire pattern of our occupation," he said, "had invasion of Japan been necessary it might have been a major military disaster."

"The southern part of the island took the worst beating, with nearly all army and navy installations destroyed," he quoted the correspondent as saying.

Progress Made In Unifying China

Chungking, Oct. 11.—(P)—Chinese Nationalist and Communist negotiators for a unified China issued a communique today agreeing upon basic principles of political peace in a nation split for decades by bloody fighting for government control.

The communique also set forth the negotiators' willingness to continue the talks which have been underway during a five-weeks-old truce in the fighting, and to submit complex military and political questions still unsettled to a military subcommittee and a broadly constituted political consultative council.

The statement indicated the determination of Nationalist Leader Chiang Kai-Shek to achieve "unity of political authority" immediately.

Mao Tzu-Tung, leader of the Communist forces, said "the outlook is optimistic" as he boarded a plane in Chungking to return to his headquarters at Yen-an, Shensi province.

SPEEDY VOTE ON TAX BILL IS EXPECTED

House Agrees To Its Ways and Means Committee's Plan and Begins Consideration

HAS AN EARLY SESSION

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—The house today agreed to its ways and means committee's plan and began consideration of a $5,300,000,000 tax-trimming bill on a take it or leave it basis.

Convening two hours earlier than usual, the chamber adopted procedure designed to speed the first peacetime tax reduction measure to passage by nightfall. Under the arrangement, no changes could be made from the floor without consent of the ways and means committee which drafted the legislation.

The measure, which also must be approved by the senate, would be this beginning January 1:

1. Guarantee every individual income taxpayer a reduction of at least 10 per cent. Total cuts for individuals would amount to $2,627,000,000.
2. Sweep $12,000,000 low income persons off income tax rolls completely. When the war ended there were approximately 50,000,000 individual taxpayers.
3. Lower corporation tax burdens $1,888,000,000 by trimming the effective rate of the war-imposed excess profits tax from 85.5 to 40 per cent; reducing the combined corporate normal and surtax from 40 per cent to 36; and repealing next July 1 the declared value capital stocks tax. The bill calls for repeal of the excess profits tax Jan. 1, 1947.
4. Cut back next July 1 the high wartime excise levies on such things as liquor, furs, jewelry, luggage and cosmetics, at a saving of $535,000,000 to consumers in the last half of 1946. Some $160,000,000 in taxes on floor stocks under excises also would be refunded to business.
5. Repeal the $5 automobile use tax, next July 1, relieving the burden on automobile owners by $140,000,000.

The legislation also freezes the social security tax in 1946 at one per cent each on employees and employers. Without the freeze this tax would jump January 1 to 2.5 per cent.

The bill came to the house floor at 10 a. m. under a rule virtually barring any changes. At the request of the ways and means committee which wrote the measure the rules committee laid out procedure prohibiting amendments unless approved by the ways and means group.

As the house made ready to act, the bill came under vigorous attack from the CIO and 14 other organizations including the farmers union.

Nation's Strike Lines Holding at Around 450,000 Mark as New Labor Disputes Claim Official Attention

VITAL ISSUES AWAIT RETURN OF EXECUTIVE

Truman Puts Out Welcome Mat for President Juan Antonio Rios of Chile Today

AN OVERNIGHT GUEST

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—President Truman faced spreading nine strikes as well as international problems upon his return to his desk today from a five-day vacation.

He put out the welcome mat for President Juan Antonio Rios of Chile who will arrive at the White House at 4 p. m. to be an overnight guest.

Rios issued a statement sharply critical of "governments of force" during a stop at Miami. Chile's closest neighbor is Argentina where Dictator Juan D. Peron is out of a job.

Meanwhile the senate foreign relations committee again delayed a vote on confirmation of Spruille Braden, former ambassador to Argentina, whom Mr. Truman nominated to be assistant secretary of state for Latin American affairs.

Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach, to whom the president delegated the task of solving reconversion labor disputes, may visit the White House soon to discuss his efforts to get an agreement from John L. Lewis and soft coal operators to end the mine walkouts.

Mr. Truman was outwardly optimistic over what he called "our little troubles."

Terming them "just a blow-up after a let-down from war," he told an audience at Gilbertsville, Ky. "We still have a few selfish men who think more of their own personal interests than they do of the public welfare."

The chief executive did not identify the "new selfish men" in his impromptu remarks which followed a formal speech dedicating the Tennessee Valley Authority's Kentucky dam, but he said:

"They are not going to prevail. You are not going to let them prevail."

He concluded: "Now lets all go home and go to work. Cut out the foolishness and make this country what it ought to be, the greatest nation the sun has ever shown upon."

Starting with a sow, two steers and 26 sheep in 1939, Eichhorn's assets now invoice more than $8000.

French "Lord Haw Haw" Put To Death As Trials Proceed

By the Associated Press

The French "Lord Haw Haw," Jean Herold Paquis, was executed in Paris today for treason in broadcasting Nazi propaganda from Strasbourg. The trials of German war criminals moved ahead in Germany and Italy.

The Wiesbaden court trying six men and a woman charged with slaying at least 400 Russians and Poles by poisonous injections at the Hadamar insane asylum heard Irmgard Huber, 44-year-old nurse, declare she "felt terrible" about the killings, but feared trouble if she tried to leave or protest.

At Luenburg, where Josef Kramer and 44 others are on trial for atrocities at Oswiecim and Belsen prison camps, defense efforts continued as the former SS guards attacked prosecution witness testimony concerning mass gas chamber executions.

Franz Hoesler, third defendant to testify in his own defense, swore that a Jewess had lied when (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Oil Workers Going Back In Two Refineries

Oil City, Oct. 11.—(P)—First break in the oil strike which had tied up six Venango county refineries the last week came when AFL workers at two of them voted to return to work today.

The 275 men were members of the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers at the Wolf's Head Refining Co., Reno, and the Franklin Creek Refining Co., at Franklin.

Both these plants, as well as that of the Continental Refining Co. here, were closed by pickets of the CIO-Oil Workers International Union after they had struck the refineries at which they themselves worked—Pennzoil Co., Oil City and Houseville; J. B. Berry Sons, Inc., Oil City, and Quaker State Oil Refining Co., Emlenton.

The vote to return to work at Reno and Franklin came after W. R. Wonseller, international representative of the CIO Union, announced withdrawal of pickets at these plants, as well as at the Continental Refining Co.

The strikers, part of a nationwide walkout of CIO-oil workers for a 30 per cent pay raise, made more than 1,000 idle in Venango county.

Members of the AFL-International Union of Operating Engineers said work likely will be resumed tomorrow or Saturday at the Continental Refining Co. They (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Move To Withhold Loans Gains Favor

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—Congress reacted warmly today to a house committee's proposal that America withhold loans to Russia and Britain until they make certain policy changes.

But several key officials said they wished the committee had not been so blunt. They expressed fear that what they termed "un-diplomatic language" would place added strains on relations between the United States and its wartime allies.

The suggestions concerning the American lending policy came from the postwar economic policy committee headed by Rep. Colmer (D-Mich.).

Just returned from a two-month tour of Europe, the group urged specifically that before any loans are made:

1. Russia be required to adopt an "open door" attitude toward American technicians and the press.
2. Britain unlock trade barriers "inimical" to United States interests.

House Group Launches Plans To Assure Control of Bomb

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—The house navy committee reported today "indications that an effective counter measure to atomic bombs has been developed."

The report, based on testimony of high naval officers, did not explain the development beyond saying atomic bombs could be exploded far short of their objective.

The house committee report was issued as Secretary of Commerce Wallace told the senate military-commerce committee that the United States might stock up more atomic bombs than other nations and still be the most vulnerable of all.

"This is essentially an offensive weapon," Wallace testified.

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—A drive to give congress firm control over the atomic bomb began today in the house military committee.

Backed by most Republican and a few Democratic members, it took the form of an amendment to form a proposed atomic energy commission from dealing with foreign governments in any way that might allow the bomb secret to leak out.

Any such dealings could be carried on only with specific approval of congress.

As drafted by the administration, the pending bill to set up the commission would permit it to grant foreign licenses for atomic experiments if the president approved.

Another amendment drafted by a group of committee members would forbid the president himself to give the bomb secret to a foreigner.

SITUATION IN COAL FIELDS IS UNCHANGED

Sec'y Schwelmbach Again Summons Conferees Into Session to Discuss Settlement

REJECT LEWIS OFFER

BULLETIN

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach reported to President Truman today on the deadlock soft coal strike situation, but said the president sent no message to the conferees who are seeking a settlement. The secretary, beginning his fifth day of conferences with bituminous coal operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers in an effort to halt the critical coal stoppages, said "is very anxious that they get together." The miners and operators are locked in controversy over recognition of Lewis' Foremen's Union.

By the Associated Press

The nation's strike lines held at around the 450,000 mark today, only a small decrease in 24 hours, as fresh labor disputes almost offset the return of 42,000 workers to jobs in textile plants.

As new shutdowns in the six-state soft coal strike area forced additional thousands to the ranks of idle, bituminous operators and United Mine Workers Union representatives failed to agree on a compromise proposal to end the 21-day expanding work stoppages.

Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach again summoned the conferees into session today to attempt to settle the dispute between the operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers. The disputants, he said, are not far apart in their controversy over recognition of the UMW Foremen's Union, and he expressed hope that "they should be able to agree."

The secretary was expected to report to President Truman today on the progress of the negotiations. Failure of settlement is expected to see a further spread of stoppages in the coal pits. Already some 188,000 miners have walked out from nearly half of the country's soft coal mines.

Although Lewis said he would call off the strikes if the operators would agree to negotiate on the recognition issue, the operators rejected the proposal. They said if they negotiated, they wanted to protect their present opposition to bringing the foremen into the Lewis union. They maintain that foremen and other supervisory employees are part of management.

As the conferences continued, new pits closed, an dthe coal shortage hit harder at steel production. West Virginia's idle jumped to 78,400 and production dropped to less than a fourth of its daily output of 600,000 tons; 60,475 were out in Pennsylvania pits and the loss was 323,000 tons daily. In Kentucky the strikes kept 27,200 away from work; 8,000 each in Ohio and Tennessee and 5,000 in (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Argentina Has a Military Regime

Buenos Aires, Oct. 11.—(P)—Gen. Eduardo P. Pinedo, commander of the powerful Campo de Mayo garrison, took over the Argentine war ministry today as the power behind the military government, but there were indications that Col. Juan Peron, though divested of his cabinet status, remained a strong factor in the confused political situation.

Only a few hours after the government had accepted Peron's resignation as vice president, war minister and minister of labor and social welfare, he delivered a speech to an enthusiastic crowd in which he pledged the remainder of his life "to the cause of the working man."

Cries of "our president!" came from the cheering throng which gathered outside the secretariat of labor to hear the "iron man's" speech, which was nationally broadcast.

(Peron's speech was interpreted in some Latin-American quarters as inaugurating his campaign for designation as president in the general elections which have been promised for April.)

Williamsport, Oct. 11.—(P)—Judges Don M. Larrabee and Charles S. Williams, of the Lycoming county court, took under advisement the question of making permanent or lifting a temporary injunction against a Sunday movie referendum in Williamsport at the November election. The Williamsport Ministerial Association challenged the sufficiency of the referendum petition.

USED FAT BY-PRODUCTS COME HOME TO KITCHEN

Without budging from her kitchen, Mrs. Housewife can see a few of the necessary but less spectacular uses of salvaged kitchen fat for which she is now being paid two additional red ration points per pound.

Those green and white striped window curtains, for example. Used fat is required in the processing of all fabrics from wool to gingham, and in the making of all dyes. Used fat goes into the nylon thread that may be reinforcing the seams.

Used Fat for Paint

The linoleum on the floor, the paint and enamel on the kitchen furniture, the caulking compounds around the window frames need used fat in their manufacture.

Then opening a supply drawer, there are cellophane refrigerator caps to prevent the spread of odors.

Insecticides, protective wax paper and oilcloth whose manufacture depends upon salvaged kitchen fat.

In the dog's special compartment is his prepared dog food, his leather collar, flea powder and rope leash. Used fat is needed in the processing of all four!

Plastics, too, have fats and oils as an ingredient, so Mrs. Housewife's day-by-day used fat salvage helps make her orange juicer, her cake knife, and her plastic kitchen stool.

Newsprint Needs Fat

No morning newspaper without household salvage either. Printing ink and paper is processed with fats and oils. So is synthetic rubber for the dishrack, and insulating cord.

And nothing in the kitchen could be kept clean without soap and water softener. Used fat again.

Kitchen salvage comes right back home, providing hundreds of household essentials. The kitchen in which housewives save used fat, is virtually equipped with the products of fat salvage.

Fat Saving Personal

Fat saving is as personal as that. Fats and oils, so desperately needed in our economy that the government has authorized the payment of four red ration points per pound, reappear as homefront essentials.

The Department of Agriculture begs housewives to save and turn in an additional 100,000,000 pounds of cooking grease in 1945. By doing so, they help themselves and their country. Fats and oils will continue to be short until the Pacific Ocean is again a lane of commerce.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day. If the 16 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent urinary passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

THE TREND TOWARD ARBITRATION

One positive thing can be said about the government's futile efforts to settle the oil industry wage disputes: Nobody was satisfied with the results.

No one concerned is very keen about government seizure of plants in peacetime. And the majority of industrial and labor leaders, along with Labor Secretary Schwelmbach, dislikes compulsory arbitration. Yet it was on the arbitration question that the oil settlement was hung up. And it seems possible that, willy nilly, arbitration will have to be the eventual remedy for our present economic ills.

For the oil strike is only one example of the basic problem: Will a 30 per cent wage increase throughout a variety of industries raise prices further and increase the threat of inflation?

The UAW bases its demand for a 30 per cent increase on the claim that the automobile industry can concentrate for a long time on one model in filling the unprecedented demand for new cars and, by avoiding costly changeovers, operate so much more economically that the pay raise could be absorbed.

The auto industry, not surprisingly, says this isn't so. But let us assume that the UAW's claims, facts and figures are right. What then? Does that mean that the same conditions will hold good in oil and coal and other industries, and that workers in those fields can get an extra 30 per cent in the pay envelope without increasing living costs for themselves and other consumers?

The present administration's policy calls for a general increase in wages within a limit that will not force prices up. This policy seems eminently just. But it is illogical to assume that an arbitrary 30 per cent is the answer in every case.

Somehow the right answers have got to be found. And if management and labor don't show more of a disposition toward willing cooperation, fairness and mutual trust in the future than they are showing now, enforceable third-party decisions seem inevitable.

LEARNED TO FLY TOO SOON

Americans have learned to fly too soon.

Although 995,000 men have received transport-type training in the air forces, there will be no more than 95,500 jobs in civilian aviation by 1950, predicts the magazine Flying. And that figure includes personnel now in aviation and others who will receive training in civilian schools.

Citing figures of the U. S. Department of Labor, Flying estimates that five years from now there will be 37,000 pilots employed in civilian aviation, while 190,000 men have received multi-engine transport training in the services. Opportunities for men with fighter training only will be still fewer. The figure for maintenance men is even less promising. A maximum of 49,000 will be required, while the ground forces have trained 570,000 men. Other tasks will employ about 9,500, while miscellaneous functions required 235,000 men and women in the armed forces.

SERVICE SLANG

If your returned soldier asks for more battery acid, don't take his temperature or call an alienist. Just fill up his coffee cup. The same if he orders ink and cream on a shingle. He is just asking for coffee with chipped beef on toast, in language that he learned under Uncle Sam. Wives and parents may want to brush up on this service slang, which has been duly recorded in books for the wonder of future generations.

Some army and navy phrases dignify humble and enforced occupations. A wheelbarrow becomes a "general's car." A sailor unfortunate enough to get an assignment to paint and clean the washroom is the "captain of the head."

If fond relatives dwell too much on the war, they may be told to "drive it in a hangar." And the service man's sister, returned from the WAC, will tell you to "quit flapping your lips."

Reports from rehearsals justify the prediction that the Warren Players will have an auspicious opening of their sixteenth season this evening when they present the comedy stage success "Over 21" at the Woman's Club.

YEARS AGO IN WARREN
Interesting Items Taken From The Warren Evening Times

In 1935
Figures issued by the U. S. Census Bureau show that the population of the borough of Warren is now 15,116. This figure represents a gain of 1034 during the past five years.

It is presumed that at least one more month will be necessary before the North Warren Presbyterian church will be in order to hold regular church and Sunday school sessions.

A carload of apples, pears, quinces, onions, and other needed products will be on sale at the railroad siding near the Pennsylvania freight house soon.

The new Blue and White Restaurant will make its formal opening soon. The management will be on hand to welcome customers, and Jordan's orchestra will provide the music.

In 1935
Little Allen Daugherty, five-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Daugherty, Russell, was found at the home of his uncle after a wide search had been made for him.

Rev. E. Pinkney Wroth, rector of the Trinity Memorial church, presided over the annual day sessions of the Erie diocese held in Smethport.

Carl E. Chido, of the Economy Pain store, has in his display window a very interesting array of souvenirs collected in Columbia, South America. Mr. Chido was an air force instructor for six years.

In the main bout of an amateur boxing show at Corry, Joe Fazio, of Warren, scored a decision over Ralph Vommero, Erie. Fazio took every round of the fight.

Beyond Tomorrow
By Helen R. Woodward

Chapter 1

THE elevator disgorged its cargo of passengers into the milling lobby of the First National Bank Building and Anne Winslow hurried toward the revolving doors. She was late going to lunch today since the attorneys for whom she worked had been all tied up in preparing contracts that couldn't wait. She lowered her head to make the push into the rapidly circling door and so did not see the tall young man bearing down upon her. She gave a little gasp as someone slid into the compartment with her and she felt her elbow grasped in a firm palm. As the door swung into the street she looked up into the laughing brown eyes of Wayne McDowell. He retained his hold on her arm and she was conscious of a breathless thrill caused by his nearness. There was a note of seriousness beneath the banter in his voice.

"Uh-huh! Tracked down at last, my proud beauty! And don't think you're getting away from me, goody! But I haven't a lot of time to waste!"

Anne laughed and straightened her hat with her free hand. "I don't want to get away from you, goody! But I haven't a lot of time to waste!"

"Time to waste, she says! I like that! Here I've been chasing the woman for weeks trying to get in a word with her, and now she calls my conversation a waste of time! He achieved a drolly comical expression on his handsome face. She looked up at his broad grin and knew that, more than any other man she'd ever met, he could set her pulses stirring, but her voice was as gay as his.

"I suppose I'm to believe that a great athletic hero like you, with literally swarms of girls falling all over you, would have time to even think of me!"

His hand tightened on her arm. "That's exactly what you are to believe, madam!" he assured her. "Of course you can skip all that hero stuff!"

"But—the basketball idol of the entire state—the champion out-doorer!"

"Nuts! And believe me, little darling, I may have learned to hurdle a lot of barriers but not the kind you've apparently put up against me!" His brown eyes scanned her face. "What's wrong with me, anyway? Halitosis or something?"

She laughed. "Don't be silly! I haven't been avoiding you, as you fondly seem to think. I've just been busy—what with all those concerns wanting post-war contracts of one sort or another drawn up. You ought to know that, if your doting uncle tells you across the sport pages of the nation and many a predatory co-ed looked upon him with longing eyes. "No use sticking my heart out!" Anne had reasoned with sound judgment. But no amount of reasoning had been able to keep him locked out of her thoughts and dreams.

He was heading surely toward the Tulip Room of the town's biggest hotel. "But Wayne," she protested, though her heart quivered in anticipation, "I'm really not used to such elegance at the lunch hour!"

"Think nothing of it," he answered airily. "The best is not half good enough for you, little darling!"

THE Tulip Room was muted with soft lights and softer music. A gracious intimacy surrounded each small table and the one at which Wayne and Anne sat became a little island upon which they two dwelt alone for a happy interval. He could scarcely take his eyes from her flushed, lovely face long enough to give their order and the waiter coughed discreetly to remind them of his presence. When Wayne said, in that audacious way of his, "Don't strain yourself, junior, to get back in too big a hurry!" the man's trained mask relaxed and a faint smile warmed his mouth.

Wayne was looking at her with his heart in his eyes. "You see, you just had to come with me today, honey! This is in the nature of a celebration. I'm going into the Navy on Monday!"

She caught her breath as her heart plunged into her pretty patent leather slippers. She did not know what emotion was pictured in her face, but it was enough to make him reach across for her hand and to say in his deep, rich voice, "You care about it, don't you, little darling?"

She was thinking what it would mean not to see him around any more—how bleak the days were going to be when he would not breeze into the office with his carefree chatter—would not be about any more, pestering her for dates!

"Oh, Wayne, dear, of course I care! I'll miss you like—like everything!"

He straightened up, smiled with pleasure and attacked his salad with vigor. "That makes everything just about all right!" he concluded. "I was half afraid you'd sigh in relief and say, 'Thank Heaven!'"

"You didn't think anything of the sort!" she retorted almost angrily, and was appalled to find tears very hot and close behind her eyelids. "You surely know how I—that I—Oh, Wayne!"

any at all about the business."

"Well, I'll reluctantly accept your apology—you did apologize, didn't you? On one condition—you'll come to lunch with me now. How about it?"

"I haven't much time—"

"Hang the time! I wish you would get fired! Maybe you'd marry me for a home!"

Anne sighed. "Wayne, you're hopeless. Come on, then. Where do we eat?"

SHE was not at all certain that she should have come with him as they swung along the streets crowded with the noon-time rush. Old Mr. Farham, Wayne's uncle, was one of her bosses and it was through him that the acquaintance had been made. Wayne had forthwith precipitated himself unreservedly at her feet, but she had refused to go out with him. It was her firm conviction that her duties at the office did not include entertaining the boss' nephew, especially since that nephew was one of the wealthiest and most sought after young men in town. Captain of the State University's basketball team, conqueror of all the hurdles he had mentioned in track meets, Wayne McDowell had blazoned a name for himself

DISCHARGE POINTS FOR DOCTORS CUT

Washington, Oct. 10.—(A)—The navy has reduced the discharge point score for medical officers from 60 to 53.

It estimates this will make 4,000 navy reserve doctors eligible for return to civilian life by January 1, or 2,300 more than would have been eligible under the old score.

Regular and reserve officers in the Navy Medical Corps total 11,700.

Rural tenancy declined 1,500,000, or 22 per cent between 1940 and 1944. Rural home ownership in the same period gained by 366,000.

Muzzle-loading of firearms was used from the 14th to the 19th century.

Victoria Nelson And Capt. Porter Marry On Monday

A very pretty fall wedding was solemnized Monday, October 8, at 1:30 o'clock in St. Joseph's rectory, when Victoria Nelson, daughter of Mrs. Katherine Nelson, Warren-Jamestown road, and Captain Robert Porter, son of Mrs. Ella Porter, of Chancellers Valley, exchanged vows. Father Arthur Leon united the couple in marriage, using the double ring ceremony.

Lt. Lloyd Porter was his brother's best man and Mrs. Katherine Palmer, of Jamestown, N. Y., attended her sister.

The bride was lovely in a gray suit with matching accessories and wore a shoulder corsage of orchids. Mrs. Palmer was attired in brown with a shoulder corsage of yellow Talsman roses. The mother of the bridegroom wore a black ensemble with a gardenia corsage.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the Nelson home for 25 guests. Late in the afternoon the couple left for a honeymoon trip to an undisclosed destination. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at the Nelson home on the Warren-Jamestown road.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride were given by Mrs. Richard Hill, Mrs. George Cunningham, Sr., Mrs. Frank Cruickshank, Mrs. William Graham, Miss Gladys Gray and Mrs. F. Willson Dunn.

Beauty Marks Spectacle In Dance Recital

One of the features of the Recital of the Williams School of Dancing to be held early in November will be "The Winter Wonderland." This is a fantasy conceived and directed by Mrs. Williams and should be highly beautiful and intriguing.

A little "Boy and Girl" out playing in the snow, sing about the beauties of winter and dance for joy when suddenly "Jack Frost," playful imp, who delights in pinching one's ears and nose, appears before them. He asks them if they would like to see the Winter Wonderland, where all the snow and ice are made.

You may readily guess that this meets with their hearty approval. They are whisked away in a bright red sleigh, drawn by a prancing white pony, to the palace of the Ice King.

Then the Ice King greets them. Then, too, the spirit of the Northern Lights shimmers and dances about. Then they see that the Rain Fairy must come and scatter his rain drops. The North Wind must blow and twirl before the first snow flakes may come out. Then come the little snow elves. They are happy little sprites that sing as they work.

"Gone Away Is the Blue Bird," and everything is now ready for Winter. She also appears and has a treat in store for the happy children. At her bidding, Rain King, Rain Drop, North Wind and Fairy Snow Flak bring in a great snow man who comes to life and dances for them.

Singing and dancing around the Snow Man the lonely adventure ends.

A Helping Hand

From reports presented at Tuesday's well-attended board meeting of the Children's Aid Society it is learned that the 1945 annual membership enrollment of the agency is now under way by mail and personal solicitation, and that support of interested friends is more needed today than at any time in the nearly 60 years of the organization's useful history. Claire Elliott, now in her second year as social worker for the society, is busier than ever, her work extending far beyond the borough limits into the rural sections of the county. Membership in the agency is set at $1 for annual dues, with patrons' memberships at any sum above the minimum.

Despite the fact that the association does share in the Community Chest, its work is carried on mainly through this membership plan and its "special gifts fund," to which interested friends have made memorial and other donations. One of its valuable and more recent activities is the establishment of its own children's clinic, held on the fourth Friday of each month in the City Building. Here the children are brought for physical check-ups and shots given under the direction of the clinic physician. Only four months old, the clinic gives every indication of proving its worth in public health improvement.

Officers of the agency this year are Mrs. J. R. Elliott, president; Mrs. Wallace Cowden and Mrs. R. W. Steber, vice presidents; Mrs. A. C. Jackson, secretary; R. E. Durham, treasurer; Attorney J. H. Stewart, legal advisor. Memberships may be sent to the Children's Aid Society office in the court house and further information may be had from Miss Elliott or Eva Passinger, office secretary, by calling 92.

Community Party Committee Asked to Report Promptly

All chairmen for the community recreation parties have been asked to keep careful records of all members of their committees. This not only helps the general planning committee but also determines who will attend a "special" community party for everyone who helped on the parties, planned for the first part of the year.

Those who attend Saturday evening's party at Beaty school, with doors opening at eight o'clock and closing at 11:15, will be asked to sign an attendance sheet. The committee on community recreation is trying to give everyone an opportunity to qualify for the "extra-special" party, which is already being planned.

The committees hope that all young people attending the Coaches on Parade party Saturday night will have as good time as the committee have had in getting things lined up for the party. The floor show committee has some top acts ready to announce in tomorrow night's Times-Mirror. The Men About Town are furnishing music for dancing and the floor show.

Those who have accepted committee jobs are asked to be on hand when the party starts at eight o'clock.

U. S. Engineers Outline Much Work on Rivers

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11—Army engineers here are completing plans for a large construction program which will include navigation improvements and flood control works, the estimated costs of which are placed in excess of $70,000,000. Colonel Charles M. Welton, army engineer here, said that it is expected that Congress will pass a supplementary Rivers and Harbors appropriations act late this fall, which will include funds to permit an early start next spring.

While the construction of the Conemaugh flood control dam is scheduled to begin early next spring, it is believed that preliminary work will be under way this winter. This will include relocation of the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad and a start will be made on the tunnel in connection with the reservoir.

An early start is to be made in the spring of 1946 on the construction of locks and dam across the Monongahela river at the site of the existing structure at Braddock. New docks and machine shops will be built at the United States Boatyards, left bank of the Monongahela river, North Charleston. Additional spillway linings are listed at the Youghiogheny reservoir Dam, also a water supply system, buildings, surfacing access road and parking area.

Other work is listed for an early start, mostly along flood control lines, at Mahoning Creek, St. Marys, Punxsutawney, Crooked Creek and Elkins, W. Va. Construction of buildings, access road and landscaping is planned at Tionesta Creek reservoir. Plans are under way now for flood control works at Buckhannon, W. Va.

Police Chief Of Ridgway Club Speaker

Chief Harry Hill, of the Ridgway police department, gave Kiwanis Club members an interesting and informative talk on police methods and history at their weekly luncheon-meeting at the Hotel Carver on Wednesday.

Attorney A. C. Flick spoke briefly concerning the National War Fund drive, and Lou Morlock was named chairman of a committee to plan for a Ladies' Night program in the near future.

Chief Hill outlined the history of "policing", reminding members that the first organized police department was that of New York City, established in 1844. Unfortunately, he said, the custom at that time and for many years afterward was to classify policemen in the unskilled labor lists and most often they were selected for their prowess in the boxing and wrestling fields.

The biggest development in police work came in 1905, he recalled, when fingerprinting was instituted, to be followed soon afterward by use of photography and the real turning point in 1928, when much of the previous appointment graft was eliminated and training, often self-imposed, became popular. In 1930 there were very few crime detection laboratories in the country, but today, the speaker said, there are hundreds. Police zone schools were established in Pennsylvania in 1938, with courses in basic, advanced and technical police work. The war period interfering, this work is now being resumed with refresher courses such as the 24-week school which started here in Warren on Wednesday evening.

The phase of Chief Hill's talk which dealt with public relations was very interesting, showing that anti-social and always gives trouble; also that in the matter of motor violations even the most law-abiding citizen frequently appears to think he is an exception where the law is concerned and desires that a "fix" be made. Traffic problems occupy from 30 to 50 per cent of police personnel time, he concluded.

Guests at yesterday's meeting included: Gust Westron, Quincy, Mass.; Mr. Bloom, Fall River, Mass.; Mr. Matson, Worcester, Mass.; Henry Trask, Kiwanian from Erie; Captain W. A. Beck and Lt. J. F. Armbrust, of the New York Central Railroad Police; Lt. Mike Evan, of the local police department and T. M. Greenlund, police justice.

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT

Without Stomach Relievers

This Kind of Laxative Help Often Needed When Lower Sluggishness Causes Gassy, Bloating Misery

When most food leaves the stomach, it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 28 feet or more of intestines that the greater part of digestion is done. When we get constipated these later stages of digestion often slow down. Then food is apt to ferment and decay excessively in the bowels. As a result we may feel full of gassy bloating and other indigestion misery. That's when you need Bechams Pills. They work to relieve this congestion of waste and encourage the welcome elimination which helps promote better digestion below the belt. Ask your druggist for gentle, all-vegetable Bechams Pills today. Caution: Use only as directed, 25¢.

TWO FLIERS KILLED IN NAVY PLANE CRASH

Ligonier, Oct. 11—(AP)—Two fliers were killed yesterday in the crash of their navy fighter plane—one of an eastbound flight of 21—on a rain-swept, fog-shrouded Sugar Camp hill.

A rescue party reported the badly charred body of one flier was found in smoldering wreckage. The other flier had been thrown clear of the plane.

The bodies were brought to Ligonier. Identifications were withheld.

The New Cumberland Naval Air Facility authorities said the plane was part of a formation en route from Wildwood, N. J., to Grosse Ile, Michigan, and took off from the New Cumberland field at noon.

The first white male child born on Manhattan island was Jean Vigne in 1614.

Mental Health Is Program Topic For BPW Membership

With Mildred VanSickle's health committee in charge of program arrangements, Warren Business and Professional Women's Club members had the privilege of hearing a fine talk on "Mental Hygiene" at the October dinner-meeting held Wednesday night at the YWCA activities building. Comment on the address will be given later.

His presentation followed the table decorated with fall foliage, corns, bittersweet and ivory andies, with a large bowl of mixed autumn flowers for the speakers' table and small colored leaves marking place cards. The club collect was recited as members were seated. During dinner, Viola Lindmark led group singing and Nellie Mead accompanied at the piano.

Ruth Fenderson, president, welcomed a new member, Doris Kay, and called for reports from Violet Peterson, Ethel Patchen, Eunice

Alexander and Viola Lindmark. Daisy Branch was unanimously elected to club membership and the resignation of Marjorie Barrett was accepted with regret. Miss Lindmark announced the club's rummage sale to be held next Friday and Saturday in the Allen building on Second avenue and asked members to bring their articles to the storeroom on Thursday.

Plans were discussed for attending the fall conference of District One to be held in Youngstown on Saturday of this week. The 3:00 p. m. session will be in the high school auditorium, with dinner and evening program at 6:30 in the Pittsfield Inn. Katherine Carpenter, state president of BPW, will be the evening speaker.

The club's membership in the Children's Aid Society was continued and it was voted to buy three Clara Tree major play tickets for the group's "adopted" children. It was also voted to continue the Christmas gift project for Deshon hospital at Butler. Members who did not bring their Needlework Guild articles to the meeting were asked to leave them with Lila Schuler at the Times-Mirror as soon as possible.

Announcement Good News For Hunters

Washington, Oct. 11—(A)—Unlimber those shotgun boys. The navy is releasing 14,000,000 rounds of shotgun shells, Rep. Robertson (D-Va) was informed today. This with the 6,000,000 the army recently told Robertson were being released will be a real start toward a peacetime hunting season, the Virginian said.

Navy said the ammunition was being declared surplus as a result of examination of stock levels on 12-gauge ammunition used for training purposes.

Warren Salvage Committee Ends Its Work With Real Bang

The Warren County Salvage Committee is all finished—But it finished the enemy first.

Chairman Wylie T. Corbett, of the county committee, has almost completed his compiling of the records of the war years and when they are made public a great surprise awaits the people of the county.

September was the final month of the salvage work throughout the state and Warren county finished with a real bang! The people of the county worked hard to get out a record amount of salvage materials and there were 60 carloads of paper, etc., shipped during the month.

Shipments from the county were as follows for the month:

- Cast iron and metal scrap, 571 gross tons.
- Paper (all kinds) 11 cars of 202 net tons.
- Rags—40,000 pounds.
- Metal, lead, copper, etc. — 57,937 pounds.
- Tin cans—20 gross tons.
- Waste fats—2,538 pounds.

Mr. Corbett this morning commented at some length on the work of the salvage dealers in the county. He said: "As chairman of the salvage committee I would like to say a word of commendation for the salvage dealers, junk dealers of the county. They have co-operated with the war effort and in many cases when the drives were for the Red Cross, United War Fund or Disabled Veterans they have handled many cars of salvage material and paid all they were permitted to pay under the ceiling price."

A number of citations are being prepared by the County Defense Council and by the Salvage Committee and they are being signed by Chairman Gibson and Chairman Corbett and members of the Defense Council. They will be sent out to workers in the various drives, etc., who have made good records in getting behind the men at the front.

By FRANK CAREY
(Jack Stinnett is ill)

WASHINGTON—The Army Medical Department has been attempting to produce an antivenin for possible use against the rare habu snake, which has bitten about a dozen soldiers on Okinawa.

The habu's bite is considered quite dangerous. The snake is found only on Okinawa, but has cousins in other parts of the Orient.

It's of a family entirely different from the rattlesnake's, but Army doctors on Okinawa have been using a rattlesnake serum against the habu's bite. This is apparently effective, but the Army wants a specific habu antivenin.

TO MAKE an antivenin, poison is extracted from the snake and injected into a horse. Dosages increased gradually over a period of weeks make the horse so immune he can safely withstand amounts several hundred times as great as he could have withstood originally.

Eventually the horse is bled, and a snakebite serum extracted that contains antibodies built up by the chemistry of the horse's own blood.

In this way scientists in this country have developed a kind of all-purpose antivenin for use against the bites of all native poisonous snakes except the coral, which rarely bites. This all-around serum is made by using a mixture of venoms in immunizing horses.

IN BRAZIL, where the death rate from snake bite once was about 3,000 persons a year, the Instituto Butantan developed a scheme which has lowered the death rate to about 100 a year. The South American institute had planters and farmers bring in snakes so that antivenins could be prepared, and in exchange gave away serums for the snakes.

An authority on antivenin is Miss Doris Cochran of the Smithsonian Institution, an expert on dangerous reptiles who writes in a Smithsonian report:

"In general it may be said that an antivenin is satisfactorily effective only against bites from snakes of the same type that supplied the venom used in its preparation."

Detroit Gains Title In One Of "Screwiest" World Series Ever; Cubs' Outfield Stars

By SID FEDER
Chicago, Oct. 11 (AP)—Baseball's takeoff on the war was a screwy one. It was a boy in this case—brought the world championship back to Detroit today for the first time in 10 years, all because the Chicago Cubs ran out of gas and pitchers against the Tiger rigger-men in the clutch.

That, plus some of the fanciest thing of this fall frolics by Lefty Nieuwouwer, for a new series strikeout record for seven games, meant the ball game and the set in the final yesterday. Prince Hal was the boy in the cast—he is 24—and the boy turned out to be quite a man as he racked up his second win of the scramble.

That was the story in yesterday's 9 to 3 payoff. Jolly Cholly Grimm was so desperate for pitchers, after using most of them Sunday and Monday, he finally had to reach into the barrel and come up with Heaving Hank Borowy for his third consecutive game.

Good as Hank was in this series—he won twice and lost twice—the Tigers got to him early. They drove him from the hill after nine pitches, which three Tigers converted into singles and one run. Five other Cub pitchers followed him into the mound. That's the way those dodderers in Detroit were. They ran, mostly as if they were dragging their anchors, but their bats were loaded with high explosives.

The Tigers' hitting power when it was needed, and tight pitching in the pinches, was what made the Cubs lose their seventh series opportunity in 37 years, after being in the Tigers in 1907-08. The Tigers—absolutely on some great exhibitions of daffiness out here in the field from time to time. But when the final chips were down they picked them up with alacrity.

It wasn't only one of them, although Hank Greenberg was a forefront. The big guy was a lowed-up 35 now, but he was the glamour boy of the series in anybody's book. He hammered one homer that won a game, another that kept his ball club in it; humped three doubles in one hit; scored seven runs and knocked in even. He wound up with a .304 batting mark, which, with his 1934 and 1940 failing, made him one of 3 men in all series history to go or .300 or better in three or more series.

Phil Cavaretta, the Cubs' first-acketer and probably the most underrated man in the set, went Hank one better in this department. He was the No. 1 ball-auster and came to the wire with a .425 mark, the second time he's run through a series at a snappy .400 or better.

In the field it was strictly no contest. The Cub fly-chasing trio of Andy Pafko, who's now ranked as the National League's best center fielder—possibly the best in baseball pending one Joe M. Magglio's return—Peanuts Lowrey and Bill Nicholson made the Bengal gardeners look slow in contrast. Nicholson in addition, tied the seven-game series record by knocking in eight runs.

The Bengals relied almost entirely on their clotting skill, with an occasional classy curving orb like Nieuwouwer's yesterday and Dizzy Trout's five-hitter last Saturday. Of course, the top throwing stunt of the set was the all-one hit, one-walk masterpiece Claude Passeau came up with in the third game.

The series attracted more attention than in former classics. In spite of cold weather, a total of 33,487 fans paid $1,492,454, which, with $100,000 from broadcasting rights, was a new all-time high of $1,592,454.

The players for the two series clubs, along with the first division outfits in both leagues, wound up

Behind the Lines

Howard Lemmon, the guy who had to have a dozen or so excuses up his sleeve when the shortage of tobacco and such was definitely noticeable at his United Cigar store, has improvised one of the most unique and timely reminders in the form of a bulletin board which is displayed at his corner on Liberty and Second. Howard gathers up every news item from towns throughout the country that are preparing to build memorials, especially athletic fields. These items are posted so that every customer can see just what is going on in other places.

Perhaps many of our townspeople feel that the proposed memorial athletic field is not necessary, but this fault has been detrimental in more things than sports around Warren. Warren has always been late. Most people term it, "Missed the Boat." And that's exactly what will happen here if more people don't start thinking clearly for a change.

Back in 1935, night football was making its debut. From that time on it continued to grow in almost every city, town and hamlet in the United States. Warren "missed the boat" in every way possible. Not only was it the high school's fault, but equally as much of the blame rested on our townspeople.

When the WPA was going along strongly, towns throughout the country were taking advantage of the offer of a low-cost stadium to be built by the WPA. DuBois, where the Dragons played last Friday night, is a good example. The stadium there is one of the most attractive and accommodating to be found anywhere, and you guess it, it was built through the WPA. To keep costs down, under the DuBois stadium is a modern, fully-equipped vocational school, which takes almost the complete running costs from the school itself. Warren again "missed the boat" when the WPA made its offer. It would have cost the townspeople approximately $26,000 to have a modern stadium. "No," said the borough council, "taxes would have to be raised. Now it's going to cost the people of Warren at least $145,000 to install this proposed memorial field. And it, in all probability, will not come out of your taxes. It's going to be donations this time. It will be around six times as much as it would have cost you back in 1935 and 1939. But Warren "missed the boat," and man, how they missed it. In fact, it seems as if they never saw it.

FIELD AND STREAM MEET AT COURT HOUSE

We're going to miss the boat again, too, for if the semi-pro football league forms as planned, Warren will want to be included and this town will be the laughing stock of every town in the league when players and spectators from away come to our Russell Field for a Sunday afternoon game. No dressing rooms, no stadium, nothing but a playing field with a few bleachers attached. Bradford, Jamestown, DuBois, Erie, Oil City and a host of others have well-equipped playing fields. Players can dress at the field in nearby dressing rooms in other towns. Not here, though, they have to dress in one place and then ride or walk a mile to the field. You said it, mister, we've missed the boat.

sign government without congressional approval.

Chairman May (D-Ky.) said he did not believe either amendment would be accepted by the committee, although he conceded there might be a stiff fight behind closed doors at today's meeting.

May told a reporter he thought legislation dealing with the international aspects of the atomic bomb should be handled separately.

He added that Mr. Truman's promised message on that phase might be sent to Capitol Hill soon. As it now stands, the bill undertakes primarily to control domestic use and experimentation. It calls for creation of a nine-member commission appointed by the president, with the consent of the senate, to exercise rigid controls.

TWO HEARINGS IN SHAWMUT MINE CASE

DuBois, Oct. 11.—(P)—Ross Pentz, counsel for 350 Shawmut Mining Co. employees striking to rid their towns of "intolerable sanitary conditions," today said their situation remains "about the same."

"Everyone seems to be waiting," he declared, "for the outcome of two hearings this month."

The first hearing will be in Pittsburgh Oct. 15, Pentz said, on a petition of the mining company's certificate holders for an accounting of its 40-year-old receivership.

Harvey G. Berkhous, of Kane, has been appointed as referee to hear arguments in the company's appeal against a state board of compensation decision to allow the miners recompense for wages lost in the strike.

"To make taxes bearable it is important that all non-essential federal spending be eliminated," he declared.

The house Republican leader, Martin of Massachusetts, "served notice" that his party will fight "with unflinching determination to reduce the costs of this government and, by so doing, eventually reduce the burden of taxes."

Speedy Vote On Tax Bill Is Expected

$5,350,000,000 tax reduction bill. Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the tax-framing ways and means committee, told his colleagues the budget must be balanced and payments must be made on the huge national debt.

NOTED COMMUNIST IS LEAVING THE PARTY

New York, Oct. 11.—(P)—Louis F. Budenz, managing editor of the Communist newspaper, "The Daily Worker," has embraced the Catholic religion and resigned from the Communist party.

Budenz, who left yesterday for South Bend, Ind., to join his family at Notre Dame University, made the announcement of his return to "the faith of my fathers" through Monsignor Fulton J. Sheen, who accepted him into the church at St. Patrick's cathedral here.

"Communism, I have found, aims to establish a tyranny over the human spirit," Budenz declared.

memorial field is not functioning as well as it started out. The interest has died down. People shivered when they saw the $140,000 estimated cost. Publicity has been at a minimum, not because we don't want to give you the facts, but because the facts just aren't available. One member of the joint council-commerce committee is reported to have stated that the memorial would not go through. Just what kind of people do we have on our committees? Many of the same people have been on such projects time and time again, and time and time again they have made a flop of the thing.

Let's start thinking for a change and find out just what's happening to this memorial. If you don't, you'll never see Warren a progressive, sport-minded town like it should be.

False Alarm Gave Firemen Chilly Run

Some person with a desire to see the big red trucks roll pulled Box No. 65 at Irvine and Pennsylvania avenue early this morning and moved every piece of fire apparatus in the city. Engine Companies No. 1 and No. 2 and the aerial truck answered the call to the box and Truck No. 3 moved in to the Center to cover emergency alarms.

Arrival at the box showed that it had been pulled but no one could be found in the vicinity. The trucks were turned around and sent to their station houses. It was a chilly run for the firemen as the air was cold and the trucks are without cabs.

Police and firemen are investigating and the person who pulled the box will find it no joke as the offense carries a stiff fine.

Harry Hill Proved Good School Head

Last evening the first session of the Police School which is being held in Warren convened in the Control Room at the City building. There were about 15 police officers present from this section. Several who had enrolled were unable to be present due to activities in their departments.

Chief Harry Hill, of Ridgway, who is instructing the men at the school after graduating from the FBI School at Washington, D. C., is in charge of the school, which is operated by the Department of Education of this Commonwealth. He is an excellent instructor, a good speaker and knows his subject.

There were officers present last evening from Warren, Youngsville, St. Marys and Wilcox. Kane and Corry officers were unable to attend.

M'ARTHUR GIVES ORDERS FOR WIDE SOCIAL AND POLITICAL REFORMS IN JAP HOMELAND

General Puts It Up To New Premier To Take Prompt And Vigorous Action To See That People Are Clothed, Fed and Housed This Winter

FOREIGN EXCHANGE ASSETS ORDERED REPORTED

Tokyo, Oct. 11.—(P)—General MacArthur met the new head of the Japanese government—Premier Baron Kijuro Shidehara—for the first time today and gave him instructions for wide social and political reforms which will require liberalization of the Japanese constitution. MacArthur likewise put it squarely up to Shidehara to take prompt and "vigorous" action to see that the Japanese people are clothed, fed and housed during the coming winter.

The meeting, at MacArthur's headquarters and initiated by Shidehara shortly after he had completed his cabinet and called on the emperor, came shortly after the Allied supreme commander had directed the Japanese government to report within 90 days all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign properties of the imperial household.

Allied headquarters also announced revocation of permission to the Japanese to operate an air courier and liaison transport service. The job will be taken over by American airmen.

Cost of the war to Japan from July, 1937, to its end was indicated by the commercial daily paper, Nippon Dango, which said the Japanese funded borrowings at the end of July, 1945, amounted to 114,289,000,000 yen ($6,619,295,966).

The reforms which MacArthur told Shidehara must be made in carrying out surrender terms included votes for women, labor unionization, liberalization of education, abolition of all secret governmental police and revision of industrial monopolies.

The order for report on foreign exchange assets was the sixth step the Allied command has taken in bringing about tight control of Japanese finances.

Obviously Allied investigators are on the search for war loot and for the funds of Japan's big industrialists with the military and imperialist.

Today's announcement said the Japanese government has been ordered to report all foreign exchange assets, including private holdings and foreign holdings of the imperial household, within 90 days.

The announcement pointed out that many big families in Japan have extensive foreign holdings and "in several cases 35 per cent of their assets are located abroad."

The stated purpose of the financial directives is to assure that all Japanese owned foreign holdings (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Housewife Is Attacked With Own Hammer

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11.—(P)—Police, seeking a "thin woman in a long coat" in the hammer assault of a housewife, were stymied today when the victim lapsed into a coma which prevented further questioning.

Mrs. Martha Richey, 45, was found lying in the basement of her home on Bryn Mawr road on Tuesday night.

She had been beaten on the head with her own hammer which lay nearby.

Only due to the assailant was a brief description given by Mrs. Richey, and a pair of horn-rimmed spectacles found beside the injured woman.

From Mrs. Richey's fragmentary statements, police gathered that a woman had come to her door to sell her soap and that she had been attacked by a man.

There, the salesman attacked her with a hammer.

Attendants at Mercy hospital said the injured woman made only a few statements, mostly incoherent, before she relapsed into unconsciousness.

Her husband, William H. Richey, an employee of Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., and daughter, Mary Lou, 18, were reported en route to Pittsburgh.

Richey had been in Kansas City and the daughter at her classes in Allegheny College, Meadville.

Typhoon Damages Okinawa Island

New York, Oct. 11.—(P)—John Adams, CBS correspondent, said in a broadcast from Manila today that 90,000 soldiers had been left without quarters, five killed and a score wounded in the typhoon which struck Okinawa island Tuesday.

Several correspondents on the first plane to take off from Okinawa since the storm reported "damage so great that, had it come a month earlier, it could well have changed the entire pattern of our occupation," he said, "had invasion of Japan been necessary it might have been a major military disaster."

"The southern part of the island took the worst beating, and nearly all army and navy installations destroyed," he quoted the correspondent as saying.

Progress Made In Unifying China

By CLYDE FARNSWORTH
Chungking, Oct. 11.—(P)—Chinese Nationalist and Communist negotiators for a unified China issued a communique today agreeing on basic principles of political union in a nation split for decades by bloody fighting for government control.

The communique also set forth the negotiators' willingness to continue the talks which have been underway during a five-week-old truce in the fighting, and to submit complex military and political questions still unsettled to a military subcommittee and a broadly constituted political consultative council.

The statement indicated the determination of Nationalist Leader Chiang Kai-Shek to achieve "unity of political authority" immediately.

Mao Tse-tung, leader of the Communist forces, said "the outlook is optimistic" as he boarded a plane in Chungking to return to his headquarters at Yen-an, Shensi province.

SHOPCRAFT ELECTION Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—(P)—The National Railway Mediation Board is counting ballots by some 60,000 Pennsylvania railroad shopcraft workers in a recent bargaining agent election. Results, which will affect 49,000 employees now at work and about 17,000 others still in the armed forces, will be announced in about four days, says Ross R. Barr, board mediator here.

CHAUFFEUR REMEMBERED Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—(P)—John J. Connor, a white-haired chauffeur, received a $150,000 trust fund from his late boss, John Morin Scott, prothonotary of common pleas court here. Connor, described as a stout, middle-aged man, would not say how long he worked for the 87-year-old Scott who died Oct. 3.

SPEEDY VOTE ON TAX BILL IS EXPECTED

House Agrees To Its Ways and Means Committee's Plan and Begins Consideration HAS AN EARLY SESSION

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—The house today agreed to its ways and means committee's plan and began consideration of a $5,300,000,000 tax-trimming bill on a take it or leave it basis.

Convening two hours earlier than usual, the chamber adopted procedure designed to speed the first peacetime tax reduction measure to passage by nightfall. Under the arrangement, no changes could be made from the floor without consent of the ways and means committee which drafted the legislation.

The measure, which also must be approved by the senate, would do this beginning January 1:

1. Guarantee every individual income taxpayer a reduction of at least 10 per cent. Total cuts for individuals would amount to $2,627,000,000.
2. Sweep $12,000,000 low income persons off income tax rolls completely. When the war ended there were approximately 50,000,000 individual taxpayers.
3. Lower corporation tax burdens $1,888,000,000 by trimming the effective rate of the war-imposed excess profits tax from 85 to 60 per cent; reducing the combined corporate normal and surtax from 40 per cent to 36; and repealing next July 1 the declared value capital stocks tax. The bill calls for repeal of the excess profits tax Jan. 1, 1947.
4. Cut back next July 1 the high wartime excise levies on such things as liquor, furs, jewelry, luggage and cosmetics, at a savings of $55,000,000 to consumers in the last half of 1946. Some $160,000,000 in taxes on floor stocks under excises also would be refunded to business.
5. Repeal the $5 automobile use tax, next July 1, relieving the burden on automobile owners by $140,000,000.

The legislation also frees the social security tax in 1946 at one per cent each on employees and employers. Without the freeze this tax would jump January 1 to 2.5 per cent.

The bill came to the house floor at 10 a. m. under a rule virtually barring any changes. At the request of the ways and means committee which wrote the measure the rules committee laid out procedure prohibiting amendments unless approved by the ways and means house.

As the house made ready to act, the bill came under vigorous attack from the CIO and 14 other organizations including the farmers union.

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—House Democrats and Republicans joined today in demanding a slashing in federal expenditures as the chamber began consideration of the tax bill.

Cabinet Will Discuss the Dock Strike

London, Oct. 11.—(P)—Prime Minister Attlee summoned his labor cabinet into executive session to consider the dock strike which spread to Glasgow and threatened Great Britain with a hungry weekend.

All major docks faced imminent stoppage and delivery of food in these tightly rationed islands was imperiled.

No. 10 Downing Street issued no immediate announcement, but the question of government intervention appeared certain to be raised when the house of commons assembled this afternoon.

The huge docks at Glasgow were closed down when 4,000 Scottish stevedores joined the strike.

In all, more than 46,500 workers are out. Some 2,500 more walked out during the morning at London and Newcastle-on-Tyne. Thousands more London dockworkers were reported planning to strike later today for higher wages.

Well over 50,000 tons of needed food was tied up at miles of idle wharves. Much of the food is perishable.

The skimpy British ration of meat, butter, eggs, bacon, lard and oranges was threatened with drastic curtailment. Warehouse reserves dropped to a menacing low.

FATHER OF STUDENT KILLED IN SHOP SUES

West Chester, Oct. 11.—(P)—Joseph P. Eagles, father of a 14-year-old boy accidentally electrocuted while doing shop work in a Coatesville, high school a year ago, filed suit for damages in Chester county common pleas court for his son's death.

The suit, which named no amount, is against the school district of Coatesville; all members of the high school board; Harvey Vanderslice, superintendent of schools; William Muthard, principal of Scott senior high school, while he was cleaning it, preparatory to going hunting.

HIT-AND-RUN VICTIM Uniontown, Oct. 11.—(P)—John Drobnik, 60, of West Macon, was found lying in the road today, apparently the victim of a hit-and-run which failed to stop. The man died in a hospital.

HUNTING FATALITY Connellsville, Oct. 11.—(P)—Accidental firing of a shotgun caused the death today of Ben Kobzow, 37, of Scott senior high school, while he was cleaning it, preparatory to going hunting.

Nation's Strike Lines Holding at Around 450,000 Mark as New Labor Disputes Claim Official Attention

VITAL ISSUES AWAIT RETURN OF EXECUTIVE

Truman Puts Out Welcome Mat for President Juan Antonio Rios of Chile Today AN OVERNIGHT GUEST

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—President Truman faced spreading mine strikes as well as international problems upon his return to his desk today from a five-day vacation.

He put out the welcome mat for President Juan Antonio Rios of Chile who will arrive at the White House at 4 p. m. to be an overnight guest.

Rios issued a statement sharply critical of "governments of force" during a stop at Miami, Chile's closest neighbor is Argentina where Dictator Juan D. Peron is on a job.

Meanwhile the senate foreign relations committee again delayed a vote on confirmation of Spruille Braden, former ambassador to Argentina, whom Mr. Truman nominated to be assistant secretary of state for Latin American affairs.

Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach, to whom the president delegated the task of solving reconversion labor disputes, may visit the White House soon to discuss his efforts to get an agreement from John L. Lewis and soft coal operators to end the mine walk-outs.

Mr. Truman was outwardly optimistic over what he called "our little troubles."

Termining "just a blow-up" after a let-down from war, he told an audience at Gilbertsville, Ky., "we still have a few selfish men who think more of their own personal interests than they do of the public welfare."

The chief executive did not identify the "new selfish men" in his impromptu remarks which followed a formal speech dedicating the Tennessee Valley Authority's Kentucky dam, but he said:

"They are not going to prevail. You are not going to let them prevail."

He concluded: "Now let's all go home and go to work. Cut out the foolishness and make this country what it ought to be—the greatest nation the sun has ever shown upon."

HORST PLANS FOR ANNUAL FARM SHOW

Harrisburg, Oct. 11.—(P)—Miles Horst, secretary of agriculture and chairman of the State Farm Show Commission, said plans would be completed tonight for the 30th annual Pennsylvania Farm Show to be held Jan. 22, 23 and 24.

Horst pointed out that for the fourth straight year there will be no exhibitors of livestock and farm produce at the 1946 farm show, due to the occupancy of the farm show building by the army air force.

The 42 organizations now represented on the State Farm Show committee all planned educational meetings during the three days assigned for the 1946 session, said Horst.

Mother Beats Two Babies To Death

Asbury Park, N. J., Oct. 11.—(P)—Police Chief Vernon Shible of Wall township, said a mother beat her two baby daughters to death with a hammer, one beside the other, from there vile to four miles from here, and died in the flames.

The body of Mrs. Grace McMurray, 32, was found lying on the floor of the living room yesterday and Shible said she apparently had burned to death.

The body of the younger child, Laura Lee, 10 months, was found beside the mother. The other daughter, Dorothy Ann, two and one-half years, was found in the bathroom. The heads of both had been battered.

Cecil R. McMurray, the children's father, a mechanic working in White Sand, New Mexico, on assignment from the Evans Signal Corps laboratories, West Belmar, was notified, and Shible said he was flying home.

Gordon John Eichhorn, 20-year-old Marion, O., farmer pictured above with his wife, is the year's "Star Farmer of America," a title bestowed in nationwide competition in connection with 12th annual convention of Future Farmers of America in Kansas City, Mo. The honor is perhaps the most coveted within reach of the nation's farm youth and carried with it the prize check of $500 he is shown receiving. Starting with a sow, two steers and 26 sheep in 1939, Eichhorn's assets now include more than $8000.

French "Lord Haw Haw" Put To Death As Trials Proceed

By the Associated Press
The French "Lord Haw Haw," Jean Harold Paquis, was executed in Paris today for treason in broadcasting Nazi propaganda from Strasbourg. The trials of German war criminals moved ahead in Germany and Italy.

The Wiesbaden court trying six men and a woman charged with slaying at least 400 Russians and Poles by poisonous injections at the Hadamar insane asylum heard Irngard Huber, 44-year-old nurse, declare she "felt terrible" about the killings, but feared trouble if she tried to leave or protest.

At Luenburg, where Josef Kramer and 44 others are on trial for atrocities at Auschwitz and Belsen prison camps, defense efforts continued as the former SS guards attacked prosecution witnesses' testimony concerning mass gas chamber executions.

Franz Hoerster, third defendant to testify in his own defense, swore that a Jewers had lied when (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Oil Workers Going Back In Two Refineries

Oil City, Oct. 11.—(P)—First break in the oil strike which had tied up six Venango county refineries the last week came when AFL workers at two of them voted to return to work today.

The 275 men were members of the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers at the Wolf's Head Refining Co., Reno, and the Franklin Creek Refining Co., at Franklin.

Both these plants, as well as that of the Continental Refining Co. here, were closed by pickets of the CIO Oil Workers International Union after they had struck the refineries at which they themselves worked. Pennzoil Co., Oil City and Russellville; J. B. Berry Sons, Inc., Oil City, and Quaker State Oil Refining Co., Edinboro.

The vote to return to work at Reno and Franklin came after W. R. Wonseller, international representative of the CIO Union, announced withdrawal of pickets at these plants, as well as at the Continental Refining Co.

The strikers, part of a nationwide walkout of CIO-oil workers for a 30 per cent pay raise, made more than 1,000 idle in Venango county.

Members of the AFL-International Union of Operating Engineers said work likely will be resumed tomorrow or Saturday at the Continental Refining Co. They (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Move To Withhold Loans Gains Favor

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—Congress reacted warmly today to a house committee's proposal that America withhold loans to Russia and Britain until they make certain policy changes.

But several key officials said they wished the committee had not been so blunt. They expressed fear that what they termed "un-diplomatic language" would place added strains on relations between the United States and its wartime allies.

The suggestions concerning the American lending policy came from the postwar economic policy committee headed by Rep. Colmer (D-Miss.).

Just returned from a two-month tour of Europe, the group urged specifically that before any loans are made:

1. Russia be required to adopt an "open door" attitude toward American technicians and the press.
2. Britain unlock trade barriers "inimical" to United States interests.

House Group Launches Plans To Assure Control of Bomb

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—The house navy committee reported today "indications that an effective counter measure to atomic bombs has been developed."

The report, based on testimony of high naval officers, did not explain the development beyond saying atomic bombs could be exploded far short of their objective.

The house committee report was issued as Secretary of Commerce Wallace told the senate military-commerce committee that the United States might stock up more atomic bombs than other nations and still be the most vulnerable of all.

"This is essentially an offensive weapon," Wallace testified.

Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—A drive to give congress firm control over the atomic bomb began today in the house military committee.

Backed by most Republican and a few Democratic members, it took the form of an amendment to forbid a proposed atomic energy commission from dealing with foreign governments in any way that might allow the bomb secret to leak out.

Any such dealings could be carried on only with specific approval of congress.

As drafted by the administration, the pending bill to set up the commission would permit it to grant foreign licenses for atomic experiments if the president approved.

Another amendment drafted by a group of committee members would forbid the president himself to give the bomb secret to a foreign nation.

SITUATION IN COAL FIELDS IS UNCHANGED

Sec'y Schwelmbach Again Summons Conferees Into Session To Discuss Settlement

REJECT LEWIS OFFER

BULLETIN
Washington, Oct. 11.—(P)—Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach reported to President Truman today on the dead-lock soft coal strike situation, but said the president sent no message to the conferees who are seeking a settlement. The secretary, beginning his fifth day of conferences with bituminous coal operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers in an effort to halt the critical coal stoppages, said however the president "is very anxious that they get together." The miners and operators are locked in controversy over recognition of Lewis' Foremen's Union.

By the Associated Press
The nation's strike lines held at around the 450,000 mark today, only a small decrease in 24 hours, as fresh labor disputes almost offset the return of 42,000 workers to jobs in textile plants.

As new shutdowns in the six-state soft coal strike area forced additional thousands to the ranks of idle, bituminous operators and United Mine Workers Union representatives failed to agree on a compromise proposal to end the 21-day expanding work stoppages.

Secretary of Labor Schwelmbach again summoned the conferees into session today to attempt to settle the dispute between the operators and John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers. The disputants, he said, are not far apart in their controversy over recognition of the UMW Foremen's Union, and he expressed hope that "they should be able to agree."

The secretary was expected to report to President Truman today on the progress of the negotiations. Failure of settlement is expected to see a further spread of stoppages in the coal pits. Already some 188,000 miners have walked out from nearly half of the country's soft coal mines.

Although Lewis said he would call off the strikes if the operators would agree to negotiate on the recognition issue, the operators rejected the proposal. They said if they negotiated, they wanted to protect their present opposition to bringing the foremen into the Lewis union. They maintain that foremen and other supervisory employees are part of management.

As the conferences continued, new pits closed, an idle coal shortage in the steel industry. West Virginia's idle output to 78,400 and production dropped to less than a fourth of its daily output of 600,000 tons; 69,475 were out in Pennsylvania pits and the loss was 323,000 tons daily. In Kentucky the strikes kept 27,200 away from work; 8,848 in Ohio and Tennessee and 5,000 in (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Argentina Has a Military Regime

Buenos Aires, Oct. 11.—(P)—Gen. Eduardo Avalos, commander of the powerful Campo de Mayo garrison, took over the Argentine war ministry today as the power behind the military government, but there were indications that Col. Juan Peron, though divested of his cabinet status, remained a strong factor in the confused political situation.

Only a few hours after the government had accepted Peron's resignation as vice president, war minister and minister of labor and social welfare, he delivered a speech to an enthusiastic crowd in which he pledged the remainder of his life "to the cause of the working man."

Cries of "our president!" came from the cheering throng which gathered outside the secretariat of labor to hear the "iron man's" speech, which was nationally broadcast.

(Peron's speech was interpreted in some Latin-American quarters as inaugurating his campaign for designation as president in the general elections which have been promised for April.)

PETITION CHALLENGED Williamsport, Oct. 11.—(P)—Judges Don M. Larrabee and Charles S. Williams, of the Lycoming county court, took under advisement the action of making permanent or lifting a temporary injunction against a Sunday movie referendum in Williamsport at the November election. The Williamsport Ministerial Association challenged the sufficiency of the referendum petition.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11.—(P)—A district official of the United Mine Workers declared today that the state's ruling denying bituminous miners immediate unemployment compensation in the current coal strike is "in error."

STOCK EXCHANGES TO CLOSE FOR TWO DAYS

New York, Oct. 11.—(P)—All stock exchanges in the United States will be closed Friday and Saturday in a lengthened observance of the Columbus day holiday.

Most of the country's commodity markets will be closed Friday but will resume normal operations for the short Saturday session. Exceptions to the Friday suspensions will be the various livestock markets.

Traffic Fatalities Increase 59 Per Cent Since Surrender

Harrisburg, Oct. 11.—(P)—A 59 per cent jump in the number of Pennsylvania motor traffic fatalities in August practically wiped out a decline in highway deaths reported up to August 1 compared with a like period last year.

The state Bureau of Highway Safety today listed 137 fatalities in August against 86 in the corresponding period of 1944. Highway deaths for eight months this year totaled 749, only seven less than in the same period of previous year.

The bureau, however, noted that one more person was killed in the first half of August than those killed after gasoline rationing restrictions were lifted August 15 with the war's end.

"During the first 14 days in August there were 60 fatal accidents in which 69 persons were killed and for the last 17 days there were 62 fatal accidents in which 68 persons were killed, the bureau stated.

Asking the question "why this increase" in deaths, the bureau said "the answer is simply this: (a) the operator; haste, speeds greater than existing conditions warrant, indifferent and reckless driving; (b) the pedestrian; indifferent and thoughtless walking; (c) the cyclist; indifference, thoughtlessness and the inability to ride a bicycle in traffic safely."

The bureau said its records "do not confirm" the oft-expressed opinion "that old and dilapidated vehicles are the cause of motor vehicle traffic accidents." Twenty-seven of the 140 vehicles involved in August fatal accidents were 1941 models and 24 were made in 1940.

USED FAT BY-PRODUCTS COME HOME TO KITCHEN

Without bugging from her kitchen, Mrs. Housewife can see a few of the necessary but less spectacular uses of salvaged kitchen fat for which she is now being paid two additional red ration points per pound.

Those green and white striped window curtains, for example. Used fat is required in the processing of all fabrics from wool to ging-ham, and in the making of all dyes. Used fat goes into the nylon thread that may be reinforcing the seams.

Used Fat for Paint

The linoleum on the floor, the paint and enamel on the kitchen furniture, the caulking compounds around the window frames need used fat in their manufacture.

Then opening a supply drawer, there are cellophane refrigerator caps to prevent the spread of odors, insecticides, protective wax paper and oilcloth whose manufacture depends upon salvaged kitchen fat.

In the dog's special compartment is his prepared dog food, his leather collar, flea powder and rope leash. Used fat is needed in the processing of all four.

Plastics, too, have fats and oils as an ingredient, so Mrs. Housewife's day-by-day used fat salvage helps make her orange juicer, her cake knife, and her plastic kitchen stool.

Newsprint Needs Fat

No morning newspaper without household salvage either. Printing ink and paper is processed with fats and oils. So is synthetic rubber for the dishrack, and insulating cord.

And nothing in the kitchen could be kept clean without soap and water softener. Used fat again.

Kitchen salvage comes right back home, providing hundreds of household essentials. The kitchen in which housewives save used fat, is virtually equipped with the products of fat salvage.

Fat Saving Personal

Fat saving is as personal as that. Fats and oils, so desperately needed in our economy that the government has authorized the payment of four red ration points per pound, reappear as homefront essentials.

The Department of Agriculture begs housewives to save and turn in an additional 100,000,000 pounds of cooking grease in 1945. By doing so, they help themselves and their country. Fats and oils will continue to be short until the Pacific Ocean is again a lane of commerce.

BACKACHE, LEG PAINS MAY BE DANGER SIGN

Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 2 pints a day. If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous wastes accumulate in the blood. These poisons may start nagging at backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there's something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

THE TREND TOWARD ARBITRATION

One positive thing can be said about the government's futile efforts to settle the oil industry wage disputes: Nobody was satisfied with the results.

No one concerned is very keen about government seizure of plants in peacetime. And the majority of industrial and labor leaders, along with Labor Secretary Schwelmbach, dislikes compulsory arbitration. Yet it was on the arbitration question that the oil settlement was hung up. And it seems possible that, willy nilly, arbitration will have to be the eventual remedy for our present economic ills.

For the oil strike is only one example of the basic problem: Will a 30 per cent wage increase throughout a variety of industries raise prices further and increase the threat of inflation?

The UAW bases its demand for a 30 per cent increase on the claim that the automobile industry can concentrate for a long time on one model in filling the unprecedented demand for new cars and, by avoiding costly changeovers, operate so much more economically that the pay raise could be absorbed.

The auto industry, not surprisingly, says this isn't so. But let us assume that the UAW's claims, facts and figures are right. What then? Does that mean that the same conditions will hold good in oil and coal and other industries, and that workers in those fields can get an extra 30 per cent in the pay envelope without increasing living costs for themselves and other consumers?

The present administration's policy calls for a general increase in wages within a limit that will not force prices up. This policy seems eminently just. But it is illogical to assume that an arbitrary 30 per cent is the answer in every case.

Somewhat the right answers have got to be found. And if management and labor don't show more of a disposition toward willing cooperation, fairness and mutual trust in the future than they are showing now, enforceable third-party decisions seem inevitable.

LEARNED TO FLY TOO SOON

Americans have learned to fly too soon.

Although 995,000 men have received transport-type training in the air forces, there will be no more than 95,500 jobs in civilian aviation by 1950, predicts the magazine Flying. And that figure includes personnel now in aviation and others who will receive training in civilian schools.

Citing figures of the U. S. Department of Labor, Flying estimates that five years from now there will be 37,000 pilots employed in civilian aviation, while 190,000 men have received multi-engine transport training in the services. Opportunities for men with fighter training only will be still fewer. The figure for maintenance men is even less promising. A maximum of 49,000 will be required, while the ground forces have trained 570,000 men. Other tasks will employ about 9,500, while miscellaneous functions required 235,000 men and women in the armed forces.

SERVICE SLANG

If your returned soldier asks for more battery acid, don't take his temperature or call an alienist. Just fill up his coffee cup. The same if he orders ink and cream on a shingle. He is just asking for coffee with chipped beef on toast, in language that he learned under Uncle Sam. Wives and parents may want to brush up on this service slang, which has been duly recorded in books for the wonder of future generations.

Some army and navy phrases dignify humble and enforced occupations. A wheelbarrow becomes a "general's car." A sailor unfortunate enough to get an assignment to paint and clean the washroom is the "captain of the head."

If fond relatives dwell too much on the war, they may be told to "drive it in a hangar." And the service man's sister, returned from the WAC, will tell you to "quit flapping your lips."

Reports from rehearsals justify the prediction that the Warren Players will have an auspicious opening of their sixteenth season this evening when they present the comedy stage success "Over 21" at the Woman's Club.

Beyond Tomorrow

By Helen R. Woodward

Chapter 1

THE elevator disgorged its cargo of passengers into the milling lobby of the First National Bank Building and Anne Winslow hurried toward the revolving doors. She was late going to lunch today since the attorneys for whom she worked had been all tied up in preparing contracts that couldn't wait. She lowered her head to make the push into the rapidly circling door and so did not see the tall young man bearing down upon her. She gave a little gasp as someone slid into the compartment with her and she felt her elbow grasped in a firm palm. As the door swung into the street she looked up into the laughing brown eyes of Wayne McDowell. He retained his hold on her arm and she was conscious of a breathless thrill caused by his nearness. There was a note of seriousness beneath the banter in his voice.

"Uh-huh! Tracked down at last, my proud beauty! And don't think you're getting away from me either, so stop straining at the leash!"

Anne laughed and straightened her hat with her free hand. "I don't want to get away from you, goofy! But I haven't a lot of time to waste!"

"Time to waste, she says! I like that! Here I've been chasing the woman for weeks trying to get in a word with her, and now she calls me a goofy! Well, I'm not a goofy! He achieved a drolly comical expression on his handsome face. She looked up at his broad big nose and knew that, more than any other man she'd ever met, he could set her pulses stirring, but her voice was as gay as his.

"I suppose I'm to believe that a great athlete like you, with literally swarms of girls falling all over you, would have time to even think of me!"

His hand tightened on her arm. "That's exactly what you are to believe, madam!" he assured her. "Of course you can skip all that hero stuff!"

"But—the basketball idol of the entire state—the champion outdoor miler!"

"Nuts! And believe me, little darling, I may have learned to hurdle a lot of barriers but not the kind you've apparently put up against me!" His brown eyes scanned her face. "What's wrong with me, anyway? Halitosis or something?"

She laughed. "Don't be silly! I haven't been avoiding you, as you fondly seem to think. I've just been busy—what with all those concerns wanting post-war contracts of one sort or another drawn up. You ought to know that, if your doting uncle tells you anything at all about the business."

Anne gasped as she felt her elbow grasped in a firm palm.

"Well, I'll reluctantly accept your apology—you did apologize, didn't you? On one condition—you'll come to lunch with me now. How about it?"

"I haven't much time—" "Hang the time! I wish you would get fired! Maybe you'd marry me for a home!" Anne sighed. "Wayne, you're hopeless. Come on, then. Where do we eat?"

SHE was not at all certain that she should have come with him as they swung along the streets crowded with the noon-time rush. Old Mr. Farham, Wayne's uncle, was one of her bosses and it was through him that the acquaintance had been made. Wayne had forthwith precipitated himself unreservedly at her feet, but she had refused to go out with him. It was her firm conviction that her duties at the office did not include entertaining the boss' nephew, especially since that nephew was one of the wealthiest and most sought after young men in town. Captain of the State University's basketball team, conqueror of all the hurdles he had mentioned in track meets, Wayne McDowell had blazoned a name for himself across the sport pages of the nation and many a predatory coed looked upon him with longing eyes. "No use sticking my heart out!" Anne had reasoned with sound judgment. But no amount of reasoning had been able to keep him locked out of her thoughts and dreams.

He was heading surely toward the Tulip Room of the town's biggest hotel. "But Wayne," she protested, though her heart quivered in anticipation. "I'm really not used to such elegance at the lunch hour!"

"Think nothing of it," he answered airily. "The best is not half good enough for you, little darling!"

THE Tulip Room was muted with soft lights and softer music. A gracious intimacy surrounded each small table and the one at which Wayne and Anne sat became a little island upon which they two dwelt alone for a happy interval. He could scarcely take his eyes from her flushed, lovely face long enough to give their order and the waiter coughed discreetly to remind them of his presence. When Wayne said, in that audacious way of his, "Don't strain yourself, junior, to get back in too big a hurry!" the man's trained mask relaxed and a faint smile warmed his mouth.

Wayne was looking at her with his heart in his eyes. "You see, you just had to come with me today, honey! This is in the nature of a celebration. I'm going into the Navy on Monday!"

She caught her breath as her heart plunged into her pretty patent leather slippers. She did not know what emotion was pictured in her face, but it was enough to make him reach across for her hand and to say in his deep, rich voice, "You care about it, don't you, little darling?"

She was thinking what it would mean not to see him around any more—how bleak the days were going to be when he would not breeze into the office with his carefree chatter—would not be about any more, pestering her for dates!

"Oh, Wayne, dear, of course I care! I'll miss you like—like everything!"

He straightened up, smiled with pleasure and attacked his salad with vigor. "That makes everything just about all right!" he concluded. "I was half afraid you'd sigh in relief and say, 'Thank Heaven!'"

"You didn't think anything of the sort!" she retorted almost angrily, and was appalled to find tears very hot and close behind her eyelids. "You surely know how I—Oh, Wayne!"

DISCHARGE POINTS FOR DOCTORS CUT

Washington, Oct. 10.—(A)—The navy has reduced the discharge point score for medical officers from 60 to 53.

Regular and reserve officers in the Navy Medical Corps total 11,700.

Rural tenancy declined 1,500,000, or 22 per cent between 1930 and 1944. Rural home ownership in the same period gained by 366,000.

Beauty Marks Spectacle In Dance Recital

One of the features of the Recital of the Williams School of Dancing to be held early in November will be "The Winter Wonderland." This is a fantasy conceived and directed by Mrs. Williams and should be highly beautiful and intriguing.

A little "Boy and Girl," out playing in the snow, sing about the beauties of winter and dance for joy when suddenly "Jack Frost," playful imp, who delights in pinching ears and nose, appears before them. He asks them if they would like to see the Winter Wonderland, where all the snow and ice are made.

You may readily guess that this meets with their hearty approval. They are whisked away in a bright red sleigh, drawn by a prancing white pony, to the palace of the Ice King.

Then the Ice King greets them. Then, too, the spirit of the Northern Lights shimmers and dances about. Then they see that the Rain Fairy must come and scatter his rain drops. The North Wind must blow and swirl before the first snow flakes can come out. Then come the little snow elves. They are happy little sprites that sing as they work.

"Gone Away Is the Blue Bird," and everything is now ready for Winter. She also appears and has a treat in store for the happy children. At her bidding, Rain King, Rain Drop, North Wind and Fairy Snow Flak bring in a great snow man who comes to life and dances for them.

Singing and dancing around the Snow Man the lonely adventure ends.

1. Boy—Phoebe Jewell.
2. Girl—Karlene Gibson.

Entire Ensemble Singing: Winter Wonderland.

The feature attraction of this production is 10-year-old Martha Anne Edwards as the Snow Man, doing a beautiful acrobatic dance on roller skates. We wish to call to the attention of the public witnessing this show that Miss Edwards' skates are not locked. All credit for the singing of Winter Wonderland and June in January is given to Mr. Byron Swanson of the Warren Conservatory of Music. His splendid cooperation, together with that of the pupils, has turned this into a really pleasing musical production.

A Helping Hand

From reports presented at Tuesday's well-attended board meeting of the Children's Aid Society it is learned that the 1945 annual membership enrollment of the agency is now under way by mail and personal solicitation, and that support of interested friends is more needed today than at any time in the nearly 60 years of the organization's useful history. Claire Elliott, now in her second year as social worker for the society, is busier than ever, her work extending far beyond the borough limits into the rural sections of the county. Membership in the agency is set at $1 for annual dues, with patrons' memberships at any sum above the minimum. Despite the fact that the association does share in the Community Chest, its work is carried on mainly through this membership plan and its "special gifts fund", to which interested friends have made memorial and other donations. One of its valuable and more recent activities is the establishment of its own children's clinic, held on the fourth Friday of each month in the City Building. Here the children are brought for physical check-ups and shots given under the direction of the clinic physician. Only four months old, the clinic gives every indication of proving its worth in public health improvement.

Community Party Committee Asked to Report Promptly

All chairmen for the community recreation parties have been asked to keep careful records of all members of their committees. This not only helps the general planning committee but also determines who will attend a "special" community party for everyone who helped on the parties, planned for the first part of the year.

Those who attend Saturday evening's party at Beatty school, with doors opening at eight o'clock and closing at 11:15, will be asked to sign an attendance sheet. The committee on community recreation is trying to give everyone an opportunity to qualify for the "extra-special" party, which is already being planned.

The committees hope that all young people attending the Committee on Parade party Saturday night will have as good time as the committee have had in getting things lined up for the party. The floor show committee has some acts ready to announce in tomorrow night's Times-Mirror. The Men About Town are furnishing music for dancing and the floor show.

Those who have accepted committee jobs are asked to be on hand when the party starts at eight o'clock.

U. S. Engineers Outline Much Work on Rivers

Pittsburgh, Oct. 11.—Army engineers here are completing plans for a large construction program which will include navigation improvements and flood control works, the estimated costs of which are placed in excess of $70,000,000. Colonel Charles M. Welons, army engineer here, said that it is expected that Congress will pass a supplementary Rivers and Harbors appropriations act late this fall, which will include funds to permit an early start next spring.

While the construction of the Conemaugh flood control dam is scheduled to begin early next spring, it is believed that preliminary work will be under way this winter. This will include relocation of the tracks of the Pennsylvania Railroad and a start will be made on the tunnel in connection with the reservoir.

An early start is to be made in the spring of 1946 on the construction of locks and dam across the Monongahela river at the site of the existing structure at Braddock. New docks and machine shops will be built at the United States Boatyards, left bank of the Monongahela River, North Charleston. Additional spillway linings are listed at the Youghiogheny reservoir dam, also a water supply system, buildings, surfacing access road and parking area.

Other work is listed for an early start, mostly along flood control lines, at Mahoning Creek, St. Marys, Punxsutawney, Crooked Creek and Elkton, W. Va. Construction of buildings, access road and landscaping is planned at Tionesta Creek reservoir. Plans are under way now for flood control works at Buckhannon, W. Va.

Police Chief Of Ridgway Club Speaker

Chief Harry Hill, of the Ridgway police department, gave Kiwanis Club members an interesting and informative talk on police methods and history at their weekly luncheon-meeting at the Hotel Carver on Wednesday.

Attorney A. C. Flick spoke briefly concerning the National War Fund drive, and Lou Morlock was named chairman of a committee to plan for a Ladies' Night program in the near future.

Chief Hill outlined the history of "policing", reminding members that the first organized police department was that of New York City, established in 1844. Unfortunately, he said, the custom at that time and for many years afterward was to classify policemen in the unskilled labor lists and most often they were selected for their prowess in the boxing and wrestling fields.

The biggest development in police work came in 1905, he recalled, when finger printing was instituted, to be followed soon afterward by use of photography and the real turning point in 1928, when much of the previous appointment graft was eliminated and training, often self-imposed, became popular. In 1930 there were very few crime detection laboratories in the country, but today, the speaker said, there are hundreds. Police zone schools were established in Pennsylvania in 1938, with courses in basic, advanced and technical police work. The war period interfering, this work is now being resumed with refresher courses such as the 24-week school which started here in Warren on Wednesday evening.

The phase of Chief Hill's talk which dealt with public relations was very interesting, showing that one group of people is definitely anti-social and always gives trouble; also that in the matter of motor violations even the most law-abiding citizen frequently appears to think he is an exception where the law is concerned and desires that a "fix" be made. Traffic problems occupy from 30 to 50 per cent of police personnel time, he concluded.

Guests at yesterday's meeting included Gust Westron, Quincy, Mass.; Mr. Bloom, Fall River, Mass.; Mr. Matson, Worcester, Mass.; Henry Trask, Kiwanian from Erie; Captain W. A. Beck and Lt. J. F. Amburst, of the New York Central Railroad Police; Lt. Mike Evans, of the local police department and T. M. Greenlund, police justice.

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT

Without Stomach Relievers

This Kind of Laxative Help Often Needed When Lower Sluggishness Causes Gassy, Bloating Misery

When most food leaves the stomach, it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 23 feet or more of intestines that the greater part of digestion is done. When we get constipated these later stages of digestion often slow down. Then food is apt to ferment and decay excessively, in the bowels. As a result we may feel full of gassy, bloating and other indigestion miseries. That's when you need Bechamel's Pills. They work to relieve this congestion of waste and encourage the welcome elimination which helps promote better digestion below the belt. Mental Health Is Program Topic For BPW Membership

With Mildred VanSickle's health committee in charge of program arrangements, Warren Business and Professional Women's Club members had the privilege of hearing a fine talk on "Mental Health through Mental Hygiene" at the October dinner-meeting held Wednesday night at the YWCA activities building. Comment on the address will be given later.

His presentation followed the 10 o'clock dinner, served at long tables decorated with fall foliage, corns, bittersweet and ivory andies, with a large bowl of mixed autumn flowers for the speakers' table and small colored leaves marking place cards. The club collect was recited as members were seated. During dinner, Viola Lindmark led group singing and Lilla Mead accompanied at the piano.

Ruth Fenderson, president, welcomed a new member, Doris Kay, and called for reports from Violet Peterson, Ethel Patchen, Eunice

Alexander and Viola Lindmark. Daisy Branch was unanimously elected to club membership and the resignation of Marjorie Barrett was accepted with regret. Miss Lindmark announced the club's rummage sale to be held next Friday and Saturday in the Allen building on Second avenue and asked members to bring their articles to the storeroom on Thursday.

Plans were discussed for attending the fall conference of District One to be held in Youngsville on Saturday of this week. The 3:00 p. m. session will be in the high school auditorium, with dinner and evening program at 6:30 in the Pittsfield Inn. Katherine Carpenter, state president of BPW, will be the evening speaker.

The club's membership in the Children's Aid Society was continued and it was voted to buy three Clare Tree Major play tickets for the group's "adopted" children. It was also voted to continue the Christmas gift project for Deshon hospital at Butler. Members who did not bring their articles to the meeting were asked to leave them with Lilla Schuter at the Times-Mirror as soon as possible.

INTERESTING PUBLICATION

One of the interesting booklets to come to The Times-Mirror is one from the Sylvania Electric Products, Inc. entitled "20 Years of Achievement in Radio". It is filled with interesting matter relative to the growth of Sylvania's work in radio and also presents a most striking picture of the late Bernard G. Erskine, who passed away June 23, 1945. The booklet is dedicated to Mr. Erskine. There are a large number of illustrations in the book.

The members to be honored are Wendell J. Phillips and George Craft, of this city, and Thomas McNamara, a former past exalted ruler of the lodge, who resides in Titusville. The occasion will be marked with a special program to be followed by the serving of a lunch during the social hour. A large crowd is anticipated.

Announcement Good News For Hunters

Washington, Oct. 11—(AP)—Unlimber those shotguns boys. The navy is releasing 14,000,000 rounds of shotgun shells, Rep. Robertson (D-Va.) was informed today. This with the 6,000,000 the army recently told Robertson were being released will be a real start toward a peacetime hunting season, the Virginian said.

Navy said the ammunition was being declared surplus as a result of examination of stock levels on 12-gauge ammunition used for training purposes.

Warren Salvage Committee Ends Its Work With Real Bang

The Warren County Salvage Committee is all finished—But it finished the enemy first.

Chairman Wylie T. Corbett, of the county committee, has almost completed his compiling of the records of the war years and when they are made public a great surprise awaits the people of the county.

September was the final month of the salvage work throughout the state and Warren county finished with a real bang! The people of the county worked hard to get out a record amount of salvage materials and there were 60 carloads of paper, etc., shipped during the month.

Shipments from the county were as follows for the month:

- Cast iron and metal scrap, 571 gross tons.
- Paper (all kinds) 14 cars of 202 net tons.
- Rags—40,000 pounds.
- Metal, lead, copper, etc. — 57,937 pounds.
- Tin cans—20 gross tons.
- Waste fats—2,338 pounds.

Mr. Corbett this morning commented at some length on the work of the salvage dealers in the county. He said: "As chairman of the salvage committee I would like to say a word of commendation for the salvage dealers, junk dealers of the county. They have co-operated with the war effort and in many cases when the drives were for the Red Cross, United War Fund or Disabled Veterans they have handled many cars of salvage material and paid all they were permitted to pay under the ceiling price."

A number of citations are being prepared by the County Defense Council and by the Salvage Committee and they are being signed by Chairman Gibson and Chairman Corbett and members of the Defense Council. They will be sent out to workers in the various drives, etc., who have made good records in getting behind the men at the front.

TIME NOW TO PLAN YULE GIFTS FOR YANKS
OVERSEAS VETS NEED PACKAGES

It's time to get busy on the Yuletide mail again, because Christmas Day is going to find thousands of American men still serving overseas.

Many of them are members of the Army of Occupation.

But thousands more are men who aren't going to get any gifts at all from families and friends—because they were expected home long before Christmas, and didn't quite make it.

'BLUE' CHRISTMAS

It will be a blue, instead of a white Christmas Day for them with no gifts to cheer them as they sweat out the dull anticlimactic period of waiting for a transport home.

Don't Wait!

The Deadline for Overseas

Christmas Mail

Is October 15

MAIL INSTRUCTIONS

Here are the instructions:

Christmas gifts for overseas shipment must not be more than five pounds in weight, nor more than 15 inches in length, nor more than 36 inches in length and girth combined.

The package should be labeled "Christmas Parcel," securely tied with strong twine and the address printed in waterproof ink.

NO INFLAMMABLES

Regulations forbid sending perishable foods, intoxicants, weapons, poisons and inflammables, such as matches and lighter fluid.

Detroit Gains Title In One Of "Screwiest" World Series Ever; Cubs' Outfield Stars

Chicago, Oct. 11.—(AP)—Baseball's takeoff on the old men eight old men and a boy, in this case—brought the world championship back to Detroit today for the first time in 10 years, all because the Chicago Cubs ran out of gas and pitchers against the Tiger trigger-men in the clutch.

That, plus some of the fanciest hitting of this fall frolics by Lefty Al Newhouse, for a new series strikeout record for seven games and the ball game and the set in the final yesterday, Prince Hal was the boy in the cast—he is 24—and the boy turned out to be quite a man as he racked up his second win of the scramble.

That was the story in yesterday's 9 to 3 payoff. Jolly Chilly Grimm was so desperate for a win, after using most of them Sunday and Monday, he finally had to go into the barrel and come up with Heaving Hank Borowy for his third consecutive game.

Good as Hank was in this series—he won twice and lost twice—the Tigers got to him early. They drove him from the hill after nine pitches, which were three Tigers' into singles and one run. Five other Cub pitchers followed into the mound. That's the way those doddering Detroiters were. They ran, mostly as if they were dragging their anchors, but their bats were loaded with high explosives.

The Tigers' hitting power when it was needed, and tight pitching in the pinches, was what made the Cubs lose their seventh series opportunity in 37 years, after beating the Tigers in 1907-08. The Tigers—all the regulars except the pitchers—are over 30—put on some great exhibitions of daffiness out here in the field from time to time. But when the final chips were down they picked them up with alacrity.

It wasn't only one of them, although Hank Greenberg was the forefront. The big guy is the lowest 35 now, but he was the glamour boy in this series in any of his books. He hammered one homer that won a game, another that kept his ball club in it; humped three doubles in one tilt; cored seven runs and knocked in even. He wound up with a .394 batting mark, which, with his 1934 and 1940 falling, made him one of 3 men in all series history to go over .300 or better in three or more series.

Phil Cavaretta, the Cubs' first-ack and probably the most un-erated man in the set, went fank one better in this depart-ment. He was the No. 1 ball-uster, and came to the wire with a .423 mark, the second time he's un through a series at a snappy 100 or better.

In the field it was strictly no ontest. The Cub fly-chasing trio of Handy Andy Pakko, who's now anked as the National League's est center felder—possibly, the est in baseball pending one Joe Magglio's return—Peanuts Lowrey and Bill Nicholson made the lental gardeners look low in con-ast. Nicholson in addition, tied he seven-game series record by nocking in eight runs.

The Bengals relied almost en-irely on their douting skill, with an occasional classy curving ob-je. Newhouse's yesterday and Saturday Trout's five-hitter last Sat-urday. Of course, the top throw-ung stunt of the set was the all-me one hit, one-walk masterpiece laude Passeau came up with in the third game.

The series attracted more atten-tion than in former classics. In ipite of cold weather, a total of 33,457 fans paid $1,492,454, which, ith $100,000 from broadcasting ights, was a new all-time high of $1,592,454.

The players for the two series ubs, along with the first division utits in both leagues, wound up

PENN OPEN SUNDAYS
The Penn Bowling Center will be open on Sunday afternoons from two to six o'clock starting this Sunday, October 14.

Behind the Lines

Howard Lemmon, the guy who had to have a dozen or so excuses up his sleeve when the shortage of tobacco and such was definitely noticeable at his United Cigar store, has improvised one in the form of a bulletin board which is displayed at his corner on Liberty and Second. Howard gathers up every news item from towns throughout the country that are preparing to build memorials, especially athletic fields. These items are posted so that every customer can see just what is going on in other places.

Perhaps many of our townspeople feel that the proposed memorial athletic field is not necessary, but this fault has been detrimental in more things than sports around Warren. Warren has always been late. Most people term it, "Missed the Boat." And that's exactly what will happen here if more people don't start thinking clearly for a change.

Back in 1935, night football was making its debut. From that time on it continued to grow in almost every city, town and hamlet in the United States. Warren "missed the boat" in the very high possible. Not only was it the high school's fault, but equally as much of the blame rested on our townspeople.

When the WPA was going along strongly, towns throughout the country were taking advantage of the offer of a low-cost stadium to be built by the WPA. DuBois, where the Dragons played last Friday night, is a good example. The stadium there is one of the most attractive and accommodating to be found anywhere, and you guessed it, it was built through the WPA. To keep costs down, under the DuBois stadium is a modern, fully-equipped vocational school, which takes almost the complete running costs from the school itself. Warren again "missed the boat" when the WPA made its offer. It would have cost the townspeople approximately $26,000 to have a modern stadium. "No," said the borough council, "taxes would have to be raised. Now it's going to cost the people of Warren at least $145,000 to install this proposed memorial field. And it, in all probability, will not come out of your taxes. It's going to be donations this time. It will be around six times as much as it would have cost you back in 1935 and 1939. But Warren "missed the boat," and man, how they missed it. In fact, it seems as if they never saw it.

We're going to miss the boat again, too, for if the semi-pro football league forms as planned, Warren will want to be included and this town will be the laughing stock of every town in the league when players and spectators from away come to our Russell Field for a Sunday afternoon game. No dressing rooms, no stadium, nothing but a playing field with a few bleachers attached. Bradford, Jamestown, DuBois, Erie, Oil City and a host of others have well-equipped playing fields. Players can dress at the field in nearby dressing rooms in other towns. Not here, though, they have to dress in one place and then ride or walk a mile to the field. You said it, mister, we've missed the boat.

memorial field is not functioning as well as it started out etc. The interest has died down. People shivered when they saw the $140,000 estimated cost. Publicity has been at a minimum, not because we don't want to give you the facts, but because the facts just aren't available. One member of the joint council-commerce committee is reported to have stated that the memorial would not go through. Just what kind of people do we have on our committees? Many of the same people have been on such projects time and time again, and time and time again they have made a flop of the thing.

Let's start thinking for a change and find out just what's happening to this memorial. If you don't, you'll never see Warren a progressive, sport-minded town like it should be.

BOWLING

The Engineers took four by forfeit from Machinery. Laufenbergers 169 and 454 was high for the Engineers. Miller of the Machinery hit 182 and 462. This league is made up of four four-man teams.

False Alarm Gave Firemen Chilly Run

Some person with a desire to see the big red trucks roll pulled Box No. 65 at Irvine and Pennsylvania avenue early this morning and moved every piece of fire apparatus in the city. Engine Companies No. 1 and No. 2 and the aerial truck answered the call to the box and Truck No. 3 moved in to the Center to cover emergency alarms.

Arrival at the box showed that it had been pulled but no one could be found in the vicinity. The trucks were turned around and sent to their station houses. It was a chilly run for the firemen as the air was cold and the trucks are without cabs.

Police and firemen are investigating and the person who pulled the box will find it no joke as the offense carries a stiff fine.

Harry Hill Proved Good School Head

Last evening the first session of the Police School which is being held in Warren convened in the Control Room at the City building. There were about 15 police officers present from this section.
Several who had enrolled were unable to be present due to activities in their departments.

Chief Harry Hill, of Ridgway, who is instructing the men at the school after graduating from the FBI School at Washington, D. C., is in charge of the school, which is operated by the Department of Education of this Commonwealth.
He is an excellent instructor, a good speaker and knows his subject.

There were officers present last evening from Warren, Youngsville, St. Marys and Wilcox. Kane and Corry officers were unable to attend.
